Minimum of 5 people

Duration

1:45pm-6:00pm (Half Day-Afternoon)

Brief Description

The first place to visit is Qoricancha (temple of the sun).

Qoricancha is one of the finest specimens of colonial architecture, an Incan temple.

We will continue to the archaeological site of Sacsayhuaman, an Incan megalithic style of architecture that could only be constructed by the gods in order to have achieved such perfect balance of art and engineering.

Our third destination is the holy Q'enqo, a uniquely constructed Inca temple.

Our next stop is Puca Pucara, a site of military ruins. Made of big walls, terraces and stairs the site was built to defend the city of Cusco and the Inca Empire in general.

Finally, our last destination before we return to the city of Cusco is a temple that is dedicated to the water. Its name is Tambomach'ay and it contains a basin of crystal clear water. This place could also be called 'El Baño del Inca'.
