

Machu Picchu by Train

Two Days, One Night

Number of People

There is no minimum for this tour!

Duration

Times depend on your train tickets- usually early morning departure and late afternoon return (2 Full Days, 1 Night)

Brief Description

Day 1 Cusco to Aguas Calientes: You will be taken to the train station of Ollantaytambo where you will take a train to Aguas Calientes. Once you arrive at the Aguas Calientes train station, a staff member from the hostel will pick you up and take you to the hostel. In the afternoon, you will have time to visit the hot springs in Aguas Calientes, remember to take your swimsuit with you! At around 7 or 8 pm, a Tour guide will visit you at the hostel to give you all the instructions to your visit to Machu Picchu.

Day 2 Machu Picchu to Cusco: Early in the morning you will start your visit to Machu Picchu. You will have a guided Tour at the ruins. The guided Tour is approximately 2 hours. After that you have all the time to explore Machu Picchu yourself.

You need to be at the train station in Aguas Calientes half an hour before the train leaves. Train to Ollantaytambo and from there bus to the center of Cusco.

Included

- All transportation
- Entrance to the ruins of Machu Picchu
- Tour guide
- Overnight stay in Hostel in Aguas Calientes

What to Bring

- Food and Drinks
- Entrance to hot springs Aguas Calientes (S/.10 nuevos soles, about $ 3 USD)
- Your original passport!

Important Notes

- If you have a student ID (including name, name of university, photo, and full expiration date) you will receive a discount of approx. 20 USD. To receive the discount, you need to present your scanned card in the time of your booking.
- Optional entrance to Huaynapicchu or Machu Picchu Mountains ($20)
- Start and return based on train ticket