

Salkantay by Bus

Number of People

Minimum of 5 people

Duration

4:30 Departure on First day. Late evening arrival (4 days/3 nights).

Brief Description

Day 1: Soraypampa - We leave Cusco, going through the towns of Izcuchaca and Limatambo, arriving at Mollepata where we will be approximately at 7:30 AM, where we can have breakfast for about 40 min. approx. After breakfast, we will continue travelling in the same transport until we reach Challacancha which will be the beginning of the walk where we will also meet our muleteers and horses that will transport our camping equipment and food. Then we will continue our journey to Soraypampa instead of our first campsite and where we will have lunch, then visit the HUMANTAY lagoon in a walk of 1:30 min approx. After the visit, we will return to our camp and have our afternoon tea and dinner.

Day 2: Soraypampa - Chaullay. At 7:00 am we will have breakfast to continue with our walk. We will have an ascent of approximately 3 hours until we reach the highest point of our entire Paso Salkantay pass, 4600 m.s. From this point we will descend to the place called Wayrac where we will have lunch. Then we will resume the walk, entering the landscape of the jungle, in this section we will appreciate formations of the rivers that later become tributaries of the Urubamba River, variety of typical plants from the place, we arrive to chaullay, where we will spend the night.

Day 3: Chaullay - Playa- Santa Teresa It is a spectacular day to descend through cloud forests, where the vegetation develops capriciously. It is the place to recognize some species such as Orchids, Bromeliads, Bomareas and etc. We visited some families in Wiñaypoco (2650m) and La Playa (2100m) we will have our succulent lunch, then we will take a transport that will take us to the town of santa teresa place of our camp. Where you will have the option of visiting the thermal baths of Cocal Mayo (the cost of transportation to the thermal baths in our package is not included)

Hiking time 6 hours, warm during our trip. Includes breakfast, lunch and dinner in the morning after breakfast, we take a flat walk through the valley floor from santa teresa to hydroelectric an approximate 3:00 hrs, appreciating the landscape bordered by mountains and nature, reaching a hydroelectric, we have a comfortable lunch to continue with our walk to the town of aguas calientes an approximate 3hrs, along the banks of the Urubamba river as well as following the railroad track of the railroad until we reach hot springs, in this trek we can appreciate vegetation of the area as well as fauna, arriving to the town of aguas calientes, there we will have dinner and we will spend our last night.

Day 4: Santa Teresa - Machu Picchu town - Machu Picchu - Cusco. In the early morning around 4.30 in the morning we will ascend to the majestic Inka citadel of Machupicchu where we will have a guided tour of approximately 2hrs, the rest of the day we will have free to take pictures or visit the famous mountain of Huayna Picchu or mountain machu Picchu (optional reservations must be made in advance), Inti Punku, in the afternoon we return to the town of aguas calientes, return to Ollantaytambo by bus and then take a tourist bus to the Imperial city of Cusco.

- Sunglasses.
- Flashlights with extra batteries.
- Binoculars

IT INCLUDES

- Transportation both ways.
- Professional guide.
- 3 breakfasts
- 3 lunches
- 3 dinners
- Horses (equipment, food, and 5 kilos of client's luggage)
- Transportation from the beach to Santa Teresa
- Camping equipment
- Entrance to Machupicchu.
- Personal assistance

DOES NOT INCLUDE

- First breakfast
- Lunch on the last day.
- CONSETUR bus service in Machu Picchu
- Sleeping bag
- Service and extra expense
- Transportation of Santa Teresa to thermal baths Cocalmayo

IMPORTANT

- Trekking shoes.
- Clothing for the cold.
- Water purifiers.
- Mosquito repellent.
- Sunscreen.